Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I have the ability to set aside my own political views and social biases and I am able to evaluate information with an open mind. In the past, while serving as a neighborhood committee chair I have taken into account the viewpoints of others, even when I was not in agreement and worked to come to a consensus. It is my experience, in working with other, that they trust my ability to be impartial and seek me out to participate in the decision making.

At this time, I do not have any connections to any city employee or Council member that would keep me from being impartial and independent.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I am a member of a minority group and know first hand how important it is for all groups to work together for the benefit of all Austin residents. As a volunteer ESL instructor I come in contact with people from other nationalities and ethnic groups and have to access their ability and need to speak English and participate in the Austin culture. I also appreciate how each of my students bring unique contributions to our city.

In my role as president of the band booster at a magnet high school I got to appreciate the diversity of city. I enjoyed working with the students and their parents who were from different geographic regions of the city and also from different social economic groups. They must have appreciated my impartiality and balanced leadership because they voted me president two years in a row, which was unprecedented.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I have been a resident of Austin since 1980 and have watched it grow and change. I am a small business owner and community volunteer and participant in many of the opportunities the city has to offer. I like Austin because it is diverse and vibrant city.

I would like to serve on this commission and be part of history. I know I can be an asset because of my ability to be objective and impartial. I get excited when I can help people participate in exercising their civic duties and rights.
